NATIONAL EDUCATION DAY

The poster features a dark green background with various white educational icons such as a graduation cap, a microscope, a lightbulb, a calculator, and mathematical symbols like $a+b=?$ and $E=mc^2$. A small logo with the text 'NATIONAL EDUCATION DAY' and a lightbulb icon is positioned in the center.

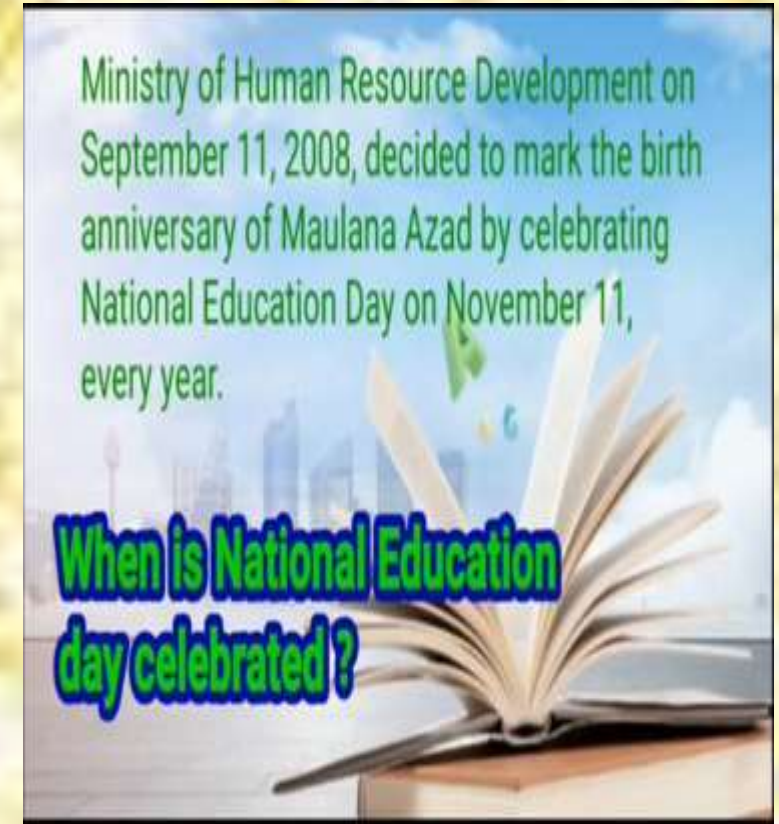

National Education Day

National Education Day is celebrated to commemorate the birth anniversary of India's first education minister Maulana Abul Kalam Azad. He was a key educationist who played an important role in developing the education system in independent India.

The poster has a light background with a city skyline at the bottom. It includes a logo with a book and a pen, and a black and white portrait of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad.

Ministry of Human Resource Development on September 11, 2008, decided to mark the birth anniversary of Maulana Azad by celebrating National Education Day on November 11, every year.

When is National Education day celebrated?

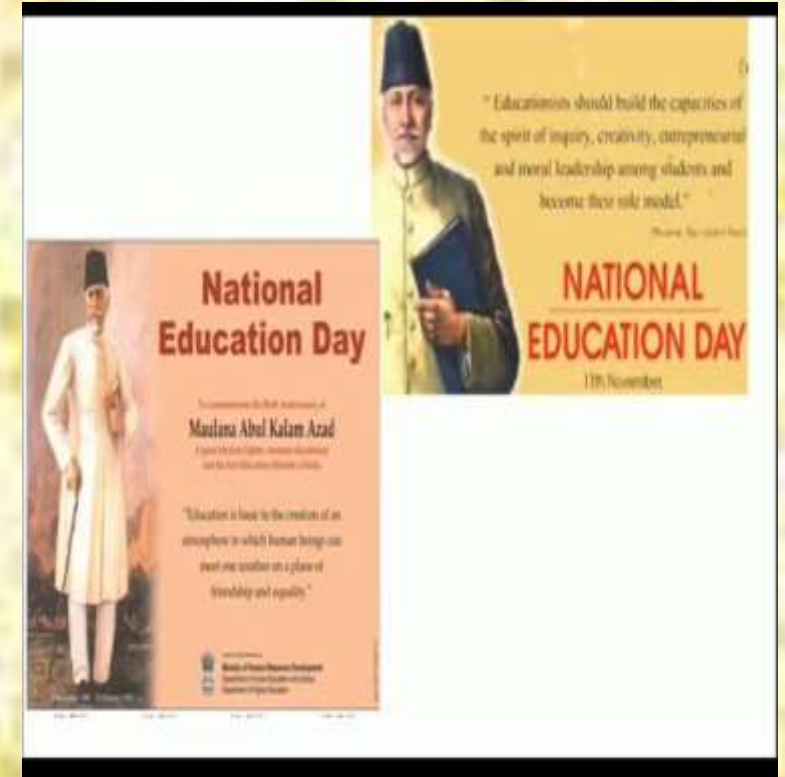

The poster features a blue sky background with a city skyline and an open book in the foreground. The text is in green and blue.

His contribution towards education

Azad during his tenure in the Education Ministry promoted research in eastern learning and literature and set up the three academies to develop the fine arts. He also started the work on the compilation of technical terms in Hindi on a large scale.

All educational institutions in the country mark the day with seminars, symposia, essay-writing, elocution competitions, workshops and rallies with banner cards and slogans on the importance of literacy and the nation's commitment to all aspects of education.

How it is celebrated?

Virtual Assembly was conducted in which students of respective classes made PPTs and shared it in the class. It included details like how, when and why National Education Day is celebrated in India.

The image features a central light gray rectangular area containing text. This area is surrounded by a decorative border of small, colorful floral patterns in shades of yellow, pink, and purple. Within the gray area, there are several overlapping, semi-transparent circles in various colors including pink, teal, brown, and light gray. The text is centered and reads:

Believe in yourself and all that you are.
Know that there is something inside
you that is greater than any obstacle.
